Commenting on the team's participation at the MDRT, Gehan Rajapakse, CEO, ATL life said: "I would like to extend my best wishes to the team that was selected to represent ATL Life at this all-important event, which is a highly-anticipated conference for industry professionals across the globe. We hope that the international exposure and experience that our top performers receive, will enable them to learn more about and align themselves with the latest trends, developments and best practices in the life insurance industry. We also hope that our team will be able to apply the knowledge and insights that they acquire in a local context and support our ongoing efforts to provide our valued customers with beneficial life insurance solutions and policies that they can trust and rely on."

Founded in 1927, the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT), is a global, independent association of more than 49,500 of the world's leading life insurance and financial services professionals from more than 500 companies in 70 countries. MDRT members demonstrate excellent professional knowledge, disciplined conduct and outstanding client servicing capabilities. The MDRT membership is globally recognized as the standard of excellence in the life insurance and financial services industry. The collective of professionals who come together for the event, strive to make a positive impact in the life insurance industry by sharing their knowledge for the benefit of clients, prospects, producers, fellow colleagues in the industry and other companies.

Also commenting on ATL's employees participating at the upcoming event which has a rich historical heritage, Asif Hameed, Head of National Distribution, ATL life said: "We would like to congratulate our top performers for securing their place at this year's Million Dollar Round Table. This event has a rich history that spans across decades. It was initially founded by a group of life insurance providers who had achieved USD 1 million in sales and went on to create a forum dedicated to fostering a more professional approach to life insurance sales and support services. Today, MDRT continues to stay true to the beliefs and principles on which it was founded. The founders of the conference believed that growth comes with the exchanging of ideas and today, the event has evolved into a dynamic hub for innovation and ongoing discussions that are shaping the global life insurance industry."
