

Amana Takaful joins hands with Akmeemana Pradeshiya Sabha for New Year

Amana Takaful, providing a redefinition in insurance in the island, teamed-up with the Akmeemana Pradeshiya Sabha to stage the Akmeemana "Soorya Mangalya" in Galle. The event was organised by the Akmeemana Pradeshiya Sabha under the auspices of the Galle District, Member of Parliament, Dr. Ramesh Pathirana. Several community leaders and Members of the company's senior management participated in the event.

Immediately after the Sinhala and Hindu New Year the event was held in Bataduwa Rathana Jothi School. The day was filled with fun and frolic as residents of the area and from afar eagerly took part in the traditional games linked to the celebration of the Sinhala and Tamil New Year. Some of the highlights or popular events included the bicycle races, tug of war, Kotta pora and Gama-haraha diweema (Cross country race) and the conquering of the grease pole.

Amana Takaful PLC is one of Sri Lanka's fastest growing composite insurers having established its presence in 21 locations Island-wide. Last year, the company took several strategic steps that helped propel growth for 2012. This included the launch of an attractive range of Life (Family) Takaful products that sharpened its competitiveness in the market. It also re-fashioned its Motor product that accounts for a large portion of its portfolio. The Motor policy, Amana Takaful Total Drive, is now available in three options to suit the risk appetite of the discerning customer with multiple options to settle claims.
